SATURDAY

Thirty-five Dozen Boys' and Misses' Hose That Would Sell Regularly at 25c Per Pair For Saturday at 17c or Three Pairs For 50c.

You wonder how we can sell 25c Hose for 17c and not lose money. Well, it is seldom we can do it. This time we found a manufacturer who wanted to close out this line. He couldn't make it at a profit. In other words, he made them too good to sell for 25c.

One kind has the new corrugated heel—the kind that does not pull up. Ribbed, seamless and has a tripple knee.

The other is the heavy ribbed, high spliced heel and good elastic knit legs. Absolutely fast black. Thirty-five dozen of such a lot as these won't last long, so come early. Sizes, 6 to 10.

When the monument purchased by the city of Montpelier for Joel Foster, the long-time superintendent of the city water works, was placed in position last year, there was on it no inscription to show future generations that the statue was placed over Mr. Foster's grave by the city. The monument committee and Mrs. Foster have agreed on the following inscription which will be cut under Mr. Foster's name: "Montpelier erected this monument to Joel Foster, who installed and supervised its public water system, and who worked with honor for more than half a century for the city."

In view of the presentation of "Julius Caesar" to be given by Prof. Frederic M. Blanchard, at the Universalist church, Wednesday evening, September 20, it is interesting to note what the Art Critic for the Boston Evening Record has to say of Prof. Blanchard's work: "Prof. Blanchard of the University of Chicago, who read 'Macbeth' at Tufts college this week, is indeed one of the most profound interpreters of Shakespeare of this era. I chanced in at Goddard Chapel during the reading, and was held absorbed by his versatility in assuming the various characters of the play, together with his rich, organ-like voice. In many ways I liked Professor Blanchard better than Mr. Riddle or even Churchill in his flowery days. The Chicago scholar so portrays the various scenes and personalities in the drama, that the tragedy seems to appeal to the hearer in some new light that had never before dawned upon him. Such a man is something more than a mere entertainer, he is a public benefactor to the literary world."

Eight Years Without Painting

"PITTSBURG, Pa., July 1, 1905.

"STANDARD PAINT CO., 100 William St., New York.

"GENTLEMEN:—The writer put a Ruberoid roof on his father's house some eight years ago. Subsequently he was advised by you to paint it, but did not do so. The roof is still in good condition and we understand that you now make a Ruberoid roof in a red color. If so will you please advise if the red is as good as the grey or black and whether I would dare use it for an open balcony on which we sometimes sit and walk? Also quote me price on four or five squares of the thickest quality. Yours truly,

"C. M. ROBINSON."

Why not profit by this man's experience and use the best? Be sure it's "Ruberoid" and look for the trademark on the under side of the material. For sale only by
